

The 2014 Popsicle Stick Bridge Competition was held on February 8th, 2014 at the Museum of Flight, and talk about Competition! With 70 teams from 15 schools totaling 200 students and 50+ teachers and parents, the event was the biggest yet, and the competition is getting stiffer! There were 35+ volunteers, plus numerous people behind the scenes making this event a success! Thank you to all who sponsored, donated, participated, volunteered, and supported in any way!

New this year, a College Prep Talk occurred with participating sophomores, juniors and seniors.

The winning team for the 2014 PSB event was Puget Sound Community School's Thing One team holding 1636 lbs, and weighing only 287 grams- that's 0.63 lbs! Very impressive!

Three corporate teams entered the competition, including:

- Buckland Taylor COWI
- URS Corporation
- Museum of Flight AV Staff

The winner of the corporate competition was Buckland Taylor COWI, who held 381lbs!
